DAILY STATE SENTINEL.
INDIANAPOLIS, IND., FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 8, 1864.

DISASTER TO GEN. COLES' MARYLAND
CAVALRY.
Washington News and Rumors.
Union Loss at Chancellorville Twenty-Eight Thousand.
LATER FROM EAST TENNESSEE
Capture of 300 of our Troops
Ac. Ac. Ac. Ac. Ac.

From New York.
New York, January 7.—A letter from Harper's Ferry states that Col. Maryland cavalry met with a serious disaster, 57 out of 75 being either captured, wounded or killed, near Rectortown, Va., where they encountered an overwhelming
force of rebels.
A special to the Times, dated Washington Jan.
6, says:
A bill will soon be introduced in Congress repealing that portion of the confiscation act which limits the possession of property sold to the natural life of owners. This step is considered absolutely necessary to afford protection to purchasers of confiscated property. In Norfolk, rebel whose property has been confiscated are returning in large numbers, taking the oath of allegiance, and reinstating themselves in ancient comforts and rights.
Gen. Burnside has been ordered to New York to await some sort of a command which has been cooked up for him.
A dispatch to the Tribune, dated Washington
January 6, says:
At the caucus which the Republican members of the Senate held after adjournment today, the proposition to reorganize the Committee on the Conduct of the War was discussed.
Gen. Burnside did not leave to day, as was anticipated, being detained in completing the report of his operations while in command of the Army of the Potomac.
Rumor says that the statements of the General-in-Chief, in his recent report, are contradicted by facts and official dispatches contained in the report of Gen. Burnside, and the public will be satisfied. The statements made before the Committee on the Conduct of the War will afford sufficient vindication for Gen. Burnside.
A dispatch to the World, dated Washington
January 6, says:
The Committee on Ways and Means had the naval appropriation bill under consideration today.
Mr. Lenthall, of the Bureau of Construction, has been summoned to appear before the Committee of Ways and Means; also Mr. Isherwood, Engineer in Chief. The Committee are getting hold of some important facts connected with the naval service.
It has leaked out that official reports put the Union loss at Chancellorville, in killed, wounded and missing, at the appalling figure of 28,000.
The World's Charleston correspondent, dating December 29, says:
The rebel General Wheeler, with a large force of cavalry, attacked a train, capturing it for a few moments, but the 4th Ohio and 20th Missouri mounted infantry came up and dispatched the whole rebel force, recapturing the train and taking over 200 prisoners.
WASHINGTON, January 7.—On the 17th of December the steamer Roebuck captured the British schooner Kising Doeb, off Swanee river, with a valuable cargo.
The following named gentlemen compose the Finance Committee of the Senate:
Messrs. Fessenden, Sherman, Howe,
Cowan, Clark, Van Hook and Conness.
No claim seems to be known of the arrangements recently effected by the government authorities and Gen. Butler in relation to the exchange of prisoners, further than the fact that he has ample authority to act in such manner as will best secure this desirable object.

From Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, January 7.—A special to the Commercial, dated Cumberland Gap January 6,
says:
An overwhelming force under Sam. Jones attacked our troops at Jonesville on Sunday, consisting of about 300 men. After a desperate resistance our troops surrendered, losing 30 killed, 50 wounded, one gun and two small howitzers.

From Baltimore.

Baltimore, January 6.—The Maryland Legislature met to day, but neither House organized.
A caucus is being held to night.

From Halifax.

Halifax, January 7.—The steamer Chesapeake was placed in admiralty to day by the Provincial Government.
